Everyone deserves a family. Become a foster parent today!

More than 7,000 children in Tennessee have been removed from their homes, most as the result of abuse or neglect. As a foster parent, you can heal lives, restore hope, mend families, and forge relationships that can last a lifetime.

The qualifications are simple:

- Can be married, single or divorced
- May or may not have children
- Can own or rent your home/apartment
- Be 25 years of age, or if a two-parent home, at least one applicant be 25
- Can be employed
- All applicants in the home must be able to attend agency training
- Valid state driver's license, with reliable transportation
- Be financially stable, employed, retired
- Have a physical completed by your primary care physician
- Pass all background checks along with drug screening
- Home must have a bedroom to accommodate a foster child/children
