

COURAGE Faith Leaders Overcoming Opioids in the Community (FLOC)

WHAT IS IT?

The purpose of this program is to encourage faith leaders in rural East Tennessee to learn about the impact of substance use disorder (SUD) in their community and how they can support and nurture those affected by SUD. Faith leaders of recovery congregations in rural East Tennessee will mentor their colleagues to enhance knowledge related to SUD and how to incorporate recovery support into their faith communities.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

Faith leaders of congregations serving Campbell, Claiborne, Cocke, Granger, Jefferson, Scott or Union Counties.

ACTIVITIES

This is a 4 month program and includes:

- Two group training days
- Biweekly mentor check-ins
- Attend two recovery meetings
- Volunteer one shift at a harm reduction program
- Connect with local prevention coalition
- Complete future actions plan
- Attend a four-day recovery coach training

COMPENSATION

A $500 stipend will be provided for participants who complete the program.
